Dear CRACKED,

Recently my family and I moved to Pittsburgh. Well, for the first few weeks we made no new friends. Then I bought a copy of CRACKED and sat reading it on the porch and you know what—we still haven't made any new friends, but at least I don't care anymore!

Angela Errick
Pittsburgh, Pa.

Dear Angela,

Don't be surprised, now that you're a CRACKED reader, that your family also starts pretending not to know you!

Dear CRACKED,

Just saw your FONZ FOR PRESIDENT Issue and it was like cool! You can keep Ford and Carter. After reading your special mag, I'm votin' for the Fonz!

Carrie Jacobs

Dear CRACKED,

Never in my life have I seen such utter incompetence. Your feeble attempt at humor is nauseating.

J.L. Boswick

Dear J.L.,

It is obvious that you addressed your letter incorrectly. We have forwarded it to that other magazine.

Dear CRACKED,
What is life?

Larry Peterson

Dear Larry,

No, but how about it! If anybody out there thinks he does look like Sylvester, how about sending us a picture and we'll print the ones closest to our man in the next issue.

Dear CRACKED,

Where have you been all my life? For a real laugh I used to read TIME—until I discovered it was ALL TRUE and got really depressed! Now I've got CRACKED and I'm all smiles.

John Spitzer

Dear John,

That's cause we're really tellin' the truth. The world today is a laughing matter!!!

Dear CRACKED,

Why do you always show politicians in such a bad light. If it wasn't for them, this country wouldn't be where it is today!

Dear CRACKED,

How often have you seen World War II fought? 10 times? 50? 100? And how about World War I and the French and Indian War? A dozen? Over and over, Hollywood keeps rehashing the same wars. Fine, except there's one conflict the movies have ignored totally since it started—the Nielson Ratings War! As you may know, every TV PROGRAM IS WATCHED BY PEOPLE (except maybe "Lassie") and the more people that watch a certain program, the higher the rating is. Too low a rating and the show is cancelled. And because of this, the networks practically kill one another to get the shows that'll obtain the highest ratings. So you see, there is a war that Hollywood's never done . . . until now, when . . .

THE

GREAT NIELSON AIRWAVE WAR

This motion picture is dedicated to all those has-been men and women who have lost their identities and fortunes in the name of TV entertainment.

Somewhere in a bunker west of Burbank.

DONALD CAPLE

THE MORE AMERICA WATCHES THE MORE WE MAKE!!

GOOD GRAVY!
What's happened to Sanford?

Sir, he took a terrible beating in last night's battle—the enemy put a sports spectacular up against him.

Oh my aching Nielson's. I dropped 5 points!

J. AMOLIK

Gather everyone into the war room at once! On this, the eve of the most important ratings battle, I think it's time for a strategy meeting.

HIGH RATINGS YOU'RE HIRED LOW RATINGS, YOU'RE FIRED!

Yes, General Signoff.

Men, our Nielson's were way off last week—Fred Sanford here is a prime example of our suffering. But, we can still come out on top—because today begins the end of the 13 week siege. The right strategies can still win it for us.

MP

And I'm prepared to help, sir. In Sunday's episode, my horse here is repossessed and I accidentally blow up Mayor Beame.

Is there the obligatory chase scene?

CENSORS ARE FOLKS WHO WANT CERTAIN SHOWS BANNED AFTER THEY HAVE SEEN THEM!

IT'S SLURRY UP HERE

Yes sir. I go after a paper boy for 81 blocks on a tricycle when he forgets to give me my change!

WE III

Good.

LOSE A RATING TODAY AND SAY GOODBYE TOMORROW!

AND I THOUGHT THE SCRIPTS THEY GAVE ME, WERE BAD!!

And on Tuesday, I wrestle a mad scissor, sir, and get bits of my clothing torn.

TODAY'S TV PROVES THAT PEOPLE WOULD RATHER LOOK AT ANYTHING THAN AT EACH OTHER!

...YOU THINK THAT'S NICE? I DON'T THINK THAT'S VERY NICE!

That's good exposure for us, Pepper!

You're all doing splendid jobs, and to help you all even more, we're bringing out our heaviest artillery yet!

You signed Jackie Gleason!??

OH, YEAH! WELL, I'VE SEEN THE CARSON SHOW, AT LEAST A HUNDRED TIMES AND I DON'T EVER REMEMBER SEEING YOU BEFORE!

No. Gentlemen, meet the biggest gun NBC ever had...

One showing of Gone With The Wind.

Oh Rhett, listen to me...

I'll say!

I'm all ears, baby.

SEE ME YOU ARE NOT!

MEANWHILE, AT THE ABC BUNKER...

Leverne, I'm not doing it!

But Shir!l, it's for the cause—for the big battle—to get an additional Nielson point! You gotta do it!

GESCHMAACK!

Yuk! Even his

LIKE, WOW!

How's everything going, Jamie?

Fine, General Hospital. I'll be ready when the enemy comes. This week I leaped 10 buses, rescued 20 pigs and fell in love with a pinball machine!

GREAT! GREAT! The enemy'll die!!!

So, Sergeant, do you think we can remain on top?

KEVIN ROBINETT

Without a doubt. Leverne and Shirley are in top form, clawing at one another, and Donny and Marie have just taped a song with both of them singing on key for nearly one whole verse!!

CRACKED is trying to invest in the sonic boom!

And there go those adorable Kotter kids, off to rehearsal. Ah, Barbarino... what are you doing with Mr. Kotter this week?

THE TV SET IS A DEVICE WHICH CHANGES A CHILD FROM AN IRRESISTIBLE FORCE TO AN IMMOVABLE OBJECT.

We're using him to recreate a great moment in history for our class—the burning of Joan of Arc!

WHEN NIELSON MAKES HIS CALL SAY "ABC"... THAT'S ALL

I bet that makes Kotter hot under the collar!

Steve, how many times must I tell you—exit the cafeteria through the door—NOT the wall!! You want the bunker to collapse?!

Sorry, sir.

Sergeant, I can taste the victory in my mouth.

AND AT STILL A THIRD BATTLE STATION...

CBS BUNKER

Look Archie, they named the building after us.

Ah, Edith—here's a match. Why don't you warm up your brain.

General Plug-It, things are gettin' pretty tense around here.

I know J.J. After being victorious 20 years in a row, this is the first time the enemy has posed a real threat.

Well, I'm ready to give my all...

J. KENNEDY

HUGH BRESLIN

And what weapon are you using?

WHEN YOU'RE TUNED IN TO CBS YOU'RE SURE YOU'VE GOT THE VERY BEST

Why... DYN-O-MITE!!!

General Plug-It really seems worried about tomorrow.

Wouldn't you? With Kotter on the left, Fonzie on the right, we're surrounded, Cher!

I'm calling in the naval reserve.

McGarret, it's 7:00... the battle begins.

Book 'em Dano...

RATINGS RESEARCH

Well, we're not losing our battle.

DON'T GUESS WATCH CBS

You mean...

Look! Look! I've got John Wayne!

Hang it up, Carol. I've got Elton John!!!

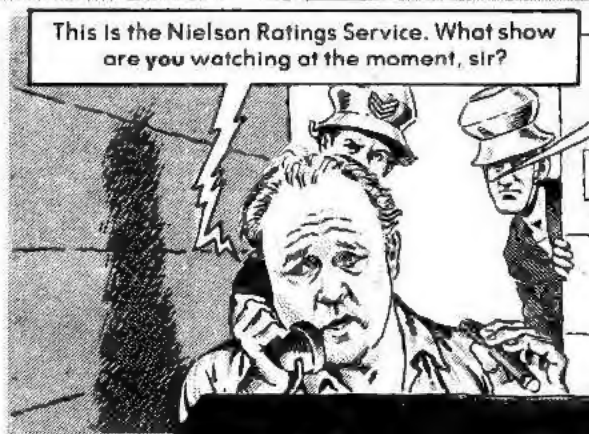

ELTON JOHN

KLUK!

General Plug-It, they got me!

This is the Nielson Ratings Service. What show are you watching at the moment, sir?

S.W.A.T.—on ABC, but please don't tell my boss.

I WONDER HOW HE'D LOOK WITH A LOLLYPOP!

SHUTZ

Look Leverage. J.J.'s getting ready to go DYN-O-MITE!

Quick Shirl, say something stupid.

Oh yes... ah... You know, I always thought that a bowling pin was something your steady put on your blouse.

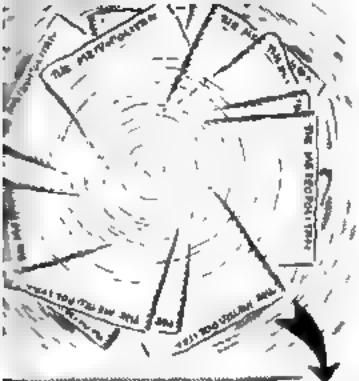

KLUK!

They got me!

CRACKED is tossing a salad and losing the toss!

VICTORY!!! NOW ONTO A TAKEOVER OF THE ENTIRE SEASON!!!

I have just begun to fight!

Didn't Admiral Byrd say that once — or was
it Tweety Bird?

Book em,
Dano.

Easy with McGarret.
He's delirious from battle fatigue.

THE METROPOLITAN

ABC ROMPS ENEMY IN STUNNING NIELSON BLITZ!

IT WAS REVEALED TODAY THAT THE ABC ARSENAL COMPLETELY DESTROYED THE ENEMY BY CAPTURING THE LARGEST AUDIENCE EVER, THEREBY WINNING THE HIGHEST NIELSONS. ABC IS NOW THE RATINGS CHAMP.

You O.K.,
Pepper?

Yes — It's only a surface wound I fled my opposition.

Are they?

Yes... It's a deep wound. I'm afraid they're cancelled.

Psst! What you need is the most powerful weapon in the world!

You don't mean... ??????

Yes! It's your only chance for next year!
The ultimate weapon...

... Sylvester P. Smythe!

TH'END

CRACKED is going to the police and accusing your feet of killing you!

THE DO-NOTHING PARTY

Every 4 years, America elects a party that promises to do hundreds of things, but end up doing nothing. Now, there's a party that says it will do nothing and pledges to keep that promise!

A typical day at the White House will look like this!

We will not raise taxes! But, we will not lower taxes either. We'll just ignore them!

We will not plead to Americans to use less gas nor will we try to produce more. We'll just try to maintain the present administration's policy by continuing to do nothing.

And, for a change, people will live in smaller houses.

THE CRACKED PARTY

PLATFORM HIGHLIGHTS

The CRACKED Party can't promise to curb inflation (we can't even curb our own dog.)

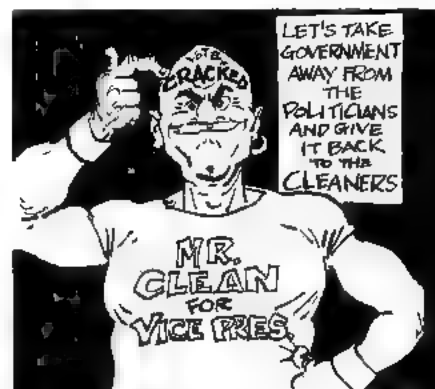

The CRACKED Party won't help cure unemployment (unless everyone finds a job first).

Mr. Smythe knows nothing about foreign policy (he thinks it's an insurance policy).

Mr. Smythe's only knowledge of busing is that one stops in front of his house.

VICE PRESIDENTIAL NOMINEE:
MR. CLEAN

Just a few short years ago, practically no one owned a CB radio. Why, a man could get on the airwaves and...

But today, the situation is totally different.

And finding a store that sold one of these radios used to be difficult.

However, now, not only big stores carry them...

...but also smaller stands as well.

Yes, without a doubt, the United States of America is caught up in the grips of

C.B. MANIA

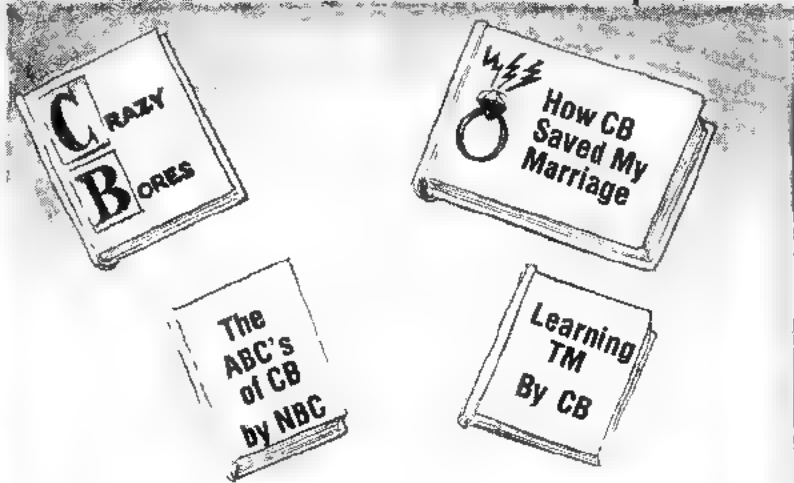

And for meeting girls.

But even with all these varied uses, there are still people who hate the whole idea.

There are even numerous books on the subject.

And in the future? There seems to be no end to the accessories that are being developed like:

CB HEADPHONES; so you can listen without disturbing other people.

Firey Furnace to anyone.

AUTOMATIC TAPE RECORDER: to answer routine calls.

Battling Bigalo here. At the tone, state the nature of your question.

CB PHONE BOOKS; listing the location of all the handles Burping Bertha Salt Lake City, Utah Beanball Elmira, N.Y Coughing Canary Tampa, Fla throughout America

With the preponderance of expensive radios, naturally comes...

And where do people use these compact little communicating devices?

In their cars...

...in their homes

... and in other unexpected places.

Rocking Pneumonia to 57 Elm—come in. It's raining and I don't wanna have to get out of the car and ring the bell.

Big Mama to Baby Bear... dinner is ready.

Nice serve,
Steve.

Thanks,
Larry.

They're used for keeping in touch when a person is away...

Plants... Daddy loves you all very much and only left you this morning so he could earn some money to buy you fertilizer.

...and forgetting information.

This is Dripping Wet, would someone please tell me if there's a big crowd at Shoddy
Sherman's Discount Store

However, sometimes this can go to extremes.

Ron, I'm gonna throw out the garbage.

Wait! Let me contact somebody to find out what weather conditions are like.

And despite all the current uses, to help keep receipts climbing, salesmen continue to come up with even more.

Like restaurants... to save money on personnel.

At drive-in movies... to eliminate the speaker posts.

At ballgames for telling the umpire off.

I am your waiter.
What would you like—over!

We'll take two portions of this.

Jack, I can't hide it any longer.

That you love me?

No, that your pants are on fire!

Get a seeing eye dog, ya bum!

Whadda ya mean... STRIKE!

Wanna borrow my glasses, ya Nerd!?

However, there have been new methods introduced for deterring CB pilferage.

CB radios can be welded into the car.

However, welding can lead to an even greater type of theft.

Then, of course, there's the closed circuit TV method.

However, there could be a problem even here.

And if all else fails, one can always get a guard dog.

And where will all this CB mania lead to?

You guessed it—to such confusion that in a couple of years...

About this time every year, a whole slew of new TV shows hits the TV screen—which means a whole slew of old shows must be CANCELLED! And eventually, even the most popular shows must meet this fate . . . and so CRACKED, in the spirit of TV realism, has come up with a way to get rid of the popular shows with a bang as we show you . . .

Me too, Crockeder, me too...

THE WALLED-INS

Don, I think something's wrong with this here faucet.

What makes you say that, Mil?

Because instead of being on the sink, it's here in my hand!

Oh, and Don, the front porch is rotting.

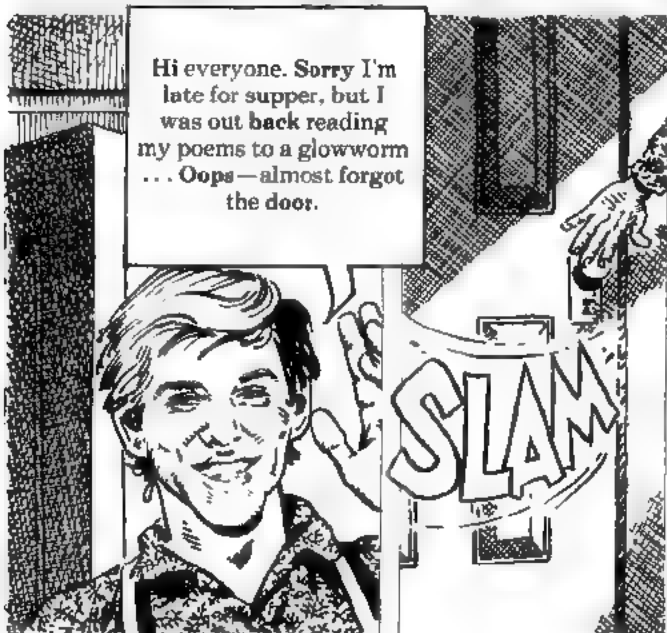

Well, as soon as the depression is over and we have some extra money, I'll make the necessary improvements.

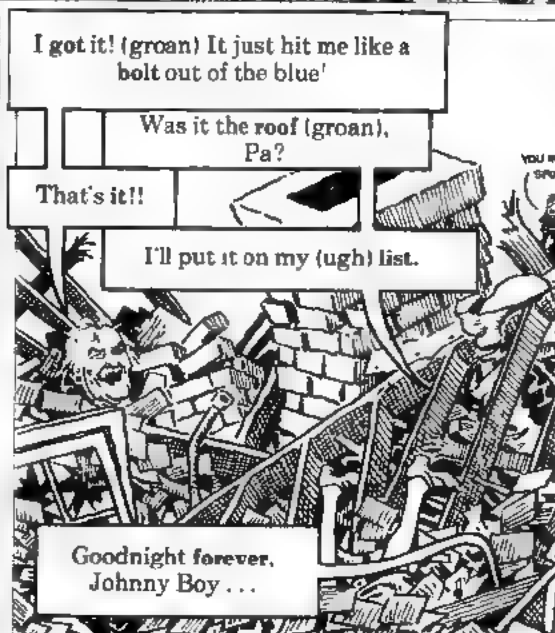

I agree with your logic, son. But there's one thing that you should look into right away—it's also rotting and on the verge of collapse.

Is it you, Pa?

No. No. It's... oh... Give me a second and it'll come to me...

Hi everyone. Sorry I'm late for supper, but I was out back reading my poems to a glowworm... Oops—almost forgot the door.

I got it! (groan) It just hit me like a bolt out of the blue!

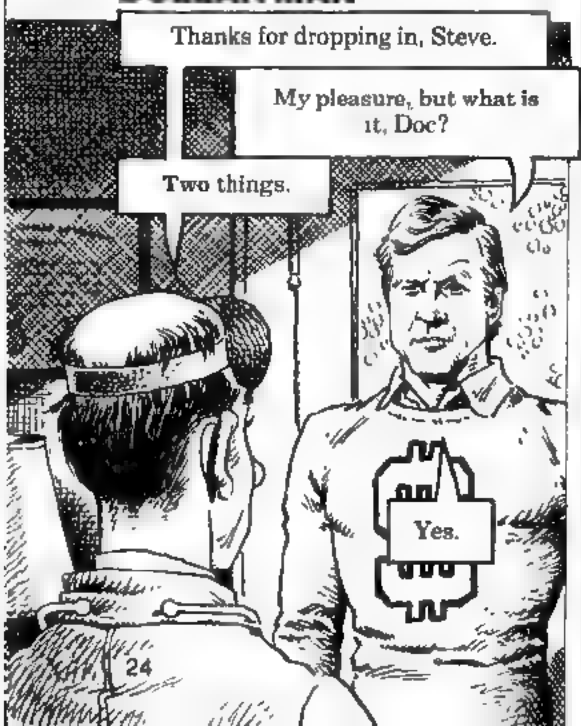

Was it the roof (groan), Pa?

That's it!!

I'll put it on my (ugh) list.

Goodnight forever, Johnny Boy...

THE SIX BILLION DOLLAR MAN

Thanks for dropping in, Steve.

My pleasure, but what is it, Doc?

Two things.

Yes.

Well, before I tell you the second thing, do you think you could first pay me for this visit in advance.

Why, Doc? ... Wait, I know ... I'm seriously ill! That's it, isn't it?

I'm afraid so. You see, you're suffering from one of the worst diseases known to six billion dollar men.

Not...

Yes, Steve... Rust!

And I'm afraid there's nothing known to medical science that can cure you

Not even if I swallow a pint of Rust-O-Leum?

Sorry.

And just when I found myself a six billion dollar woman whose circuits were compatible with mine.

Well, let's look on the bright side. As a man, your days are definitely numbered. But because of all the wires and electricity you have running through your body, when you're gone...

Yes?

OOOH! I GET SUCH HEADACHES!

You'll make a lovely lamp...

Thanks, Doc.

I'm sure it will, but after I've finished talking!

Spamo, I want you to put out an APB my right sock is missing!

That's it?

That's it! See, you didn't have very long to wait. Now what is it you wanted to tell me?

Last January, the entire staff here at CRACKED went on its annual company picnic. And, as usual, we had the whole park to ourselves (not many people like eating out when there's seven inches of snow on the ground.) And as we were bobbing for snowballs, someone shouted, "Hey, we should do a centerspread on this." And so, thanks to that person (who's still recuperating from frost bite on both his cheeks) here's

By now, most of you have probably seen the new Mel Brooks movie that's out, and ever since, you've probably been wondering what studio would be dumb enough to spend a couple of million dollars to finance a modern-day film that has no spoken dialog? Good question—and it deserves a good answer. Unfortunately, you'll have to settle for our next article, instead, entitled

THE MAKING OF SILENT MOVIE

Mr. Adunce, how did you like the script for my new movie?

I will prove that you're wrong.
Mr. Adunce, by making the film
anyway!
And if it bombs,
I will hock
my aardvark to pay back the money you've put out!

The first thing I need is a good co-star. I'll try Marty Feldman—I hear all he's been doing lately is odd jobs.

Will you do it?

SURE!

You'll need a costume.

Let's try some on!

We need some more stars, Marty.

It's Dom DeLuise.
Let's make him an offer he can't refuse

I'll do it!

Well fellows, we've just got one more problem to overcome before we can begin shooting.
The picture is overbudgeted
and I need some extra money to buy film.

How come the balloons over our heads are always empty?

Because we're not really talking.

Well then, if they're not being used...

Hurray!
Now we can begin filming -- if you haven't eaten the cameras!

thing, Mr. Brooks.
Why did you decide to make a silent movie?
Because you see, sir, I wanted to be the star but I had laryngitis!

Whether it be spring, summer, fall or winter, lately there's one thing you always find in the woods—Right!—Litter! And why is there litter? Mostly because the sport of backpacking has caught on in such great numbers. Some go out for a day—others a week and still others . . . Well, you'll meet the champ of them all when

CRACKED INTERVIEWS

THE OUTDOOR KING

Greetings, America. This is Nanny Dickering once again and this month I'm somewhere in the Adirondack Mountains where I have found a man who lives in the woods 365 days a year. Yes, friends, he is truly The Outdoor King.

Good afternoon, mighty Mike.

Why did you choose to live in the woods?

Hi, Nanny. Welcome to my home.

Well, the area was nice . . . the neighbors were quiet and the rent was cheap!

GET A STICK AND KILL IT

I WANTA BE A GRANDMOTHER . . . COME ON—MULTIPLY—MULTIPLY!

WE CAN'T WE'RE ADDERS

PR-R-R-R

I understand that to a backpacker every ounce of weight counts.

That's correct.
For example, let's look at my tooth brush.

CRACKED is asking the camping store clerk for dehydrated water!

Notice how I sawed it in half and then removed all the bristles except one.

Amazing! One bristle!
And that cleans your teeth well?

Actually, it cleans my teeth horribly ...
but it is light.

What about food?

No, thanks,
Nanny.
I just ate.

That wasn't a dinner invitation.

Oh—well, I live on the freeze-dried variety. All you do is add boiling water and you have an instant dinner.

May I taste it?

Certainly.

GREEDYMAN

That's turkey, mashed potatoes and peas you're eating.

It tastes more like wet

That's because you're not accustomed to the outdoor way of life. There's something about being here, away from civilization, that makes that taste like a $12.95 dinner.

And that one thing is ... ?

Starvation!

CRANK

Speaking of starvation, what if you do run out of food?

What's that?

Then you whip out this.

CONTENTE

What happens when you're out here by yourself?

Which is?

Oh — then I make a quickly tarp lean-to.

That's very good. Where did you learn that technique?

From my last job—I used to wrap tootsie rolls.

Mike, what do you like best about outdoor living?

Nature, Nanny—the incredible view from a mountain top—the closeup look at nature. Why, my friend, Howard Ryeback, once came eye to eye with a bear!

TOOTSIE-TENT

You can't get much closer than that!

Howard did.

How?

The bear ate him.

SUCK BEATS WORMS

That's disgusting.

But Nanny, while he was being swallowed, I heard him shouting...

...there's nothing better than outdoor living?

No. He was screaming. "I should have been a used car salesman like my Uncle Max!"

Now, I'd like to show you the correct way of building a fire.

All right.

First you gather wood.

CRACKED is getting a spanking ticket at the Lady 800!

Then you arrange the wood like so, while adding some kindling... and...

Wala! You have a fire. You see, Nanny, this is living the organic way—really taking advantage of nature.

I'll say.

I've been noticing your feet. Those are pretty strange shoes. Are they comfortable?

What shoes? This is moleskin which I use to cover the blisters I get from hiking.

Is there any way to avoid getting such blisters?

Indeed there is.

How's that?

Stop walking.

AND THAT SON OF A BITCH IS WHAT HAPPENS WHEN YOU DON'T EAT YOUR CABBAGE AND CARROTS

You know, I find it amazing that anyone could live off his back 52 weeks a year!

So do I. I wonder how they do it?

Don't you? I thought you said you camp out 365 days a year.

I do, Nanny. For three days I use that dumb pack, but the rest of the time...

I use this!

Some outdoorsman!

It's the only way to rough it.

And this is Nanny Dickering signing off with mighty Mike, the Outdoor King!

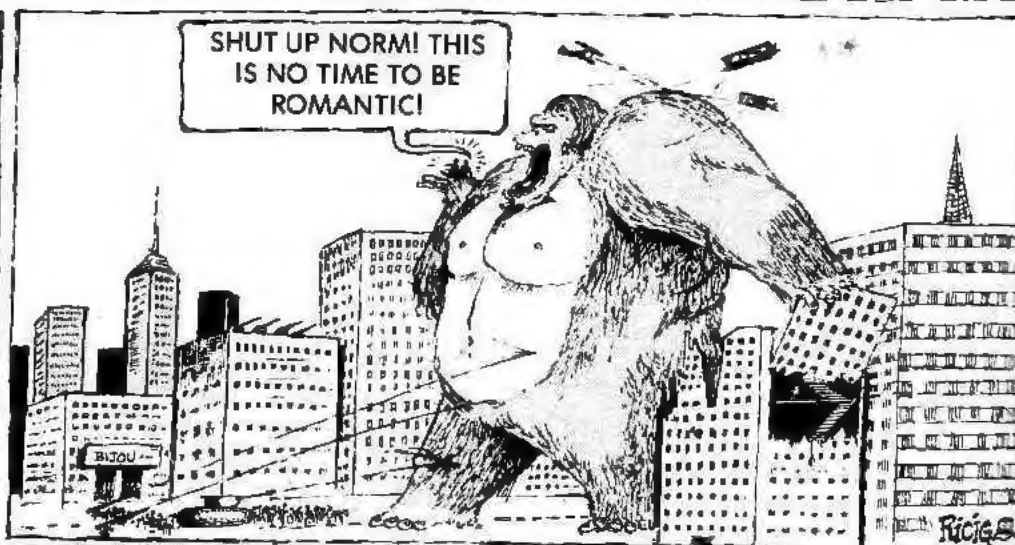

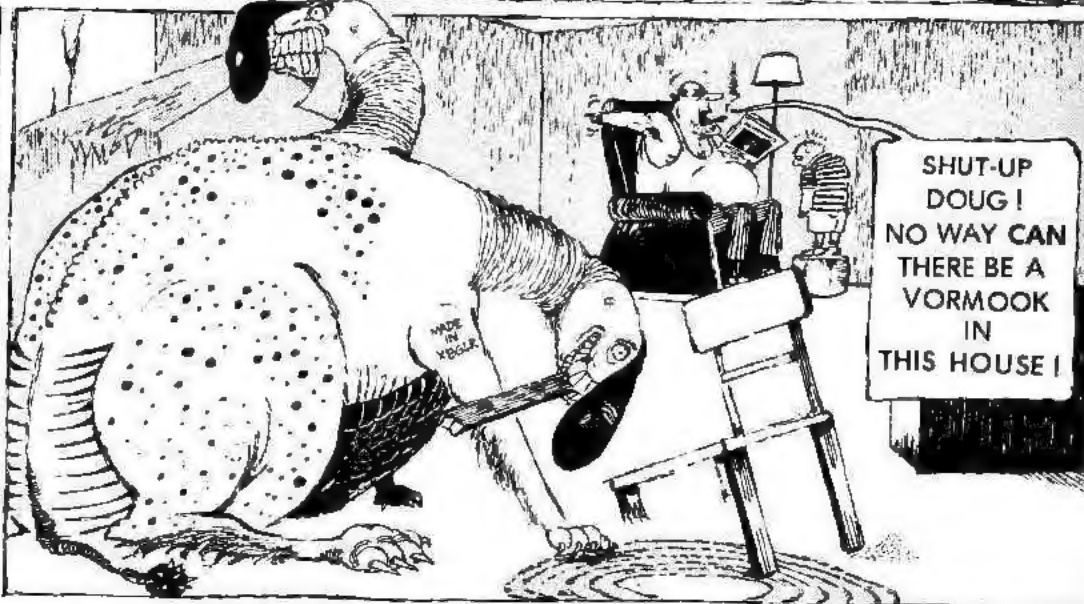

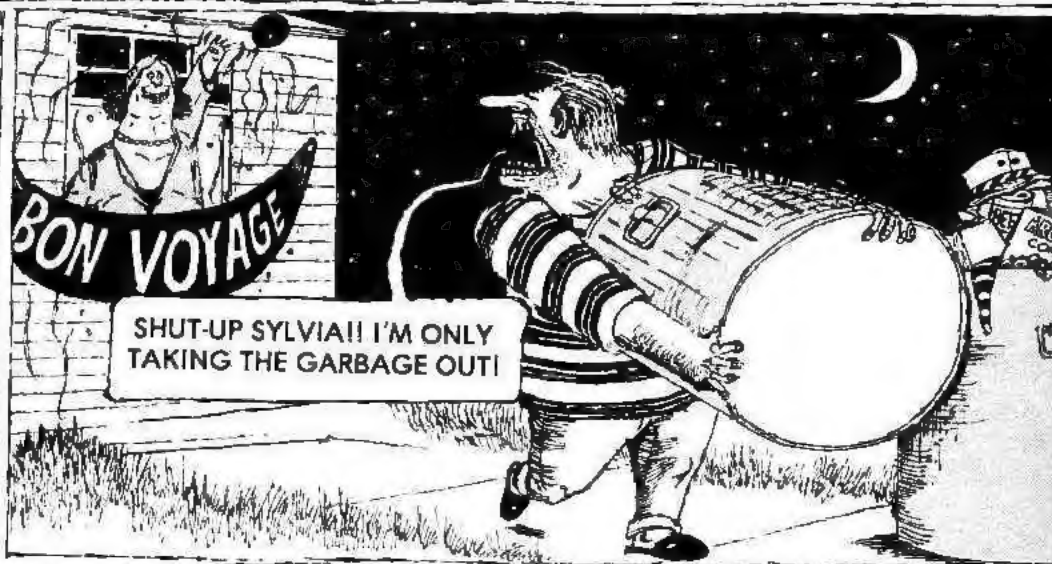

Wanna' come in and watch a little TV before you leave? Wild Kingdom's on!

No, thanks.
